SINCE 1890

OUR CODE OF CONDUCT

Chairman's Message

The Currimjee Group has celebrated its 125th anniversary. Throughout its long history, it has consistently been guided by certain sound basic values. These have been laid down by our founding fathers, namely to always display the highest professional standards in our business dealings and the highest respect for the individual.

The adherence to these principles has stood the test of time. Over the years, Currimjee Jeewanjee & Co. Ltd. has diversified and expanded its operations but has always upheld these basic principles. It has, as a result, earned the respect of stakeholders as a serious, reliable, customer-friendly and socially responsible concern.

The progress we have achieved and the reputation we have earned are due, to a large extent, to the devotion, dedication and above all the professionalism of our staff – past and present.

To encourage and consolidate such behaviour and attitude and to continue to foster the high sense of duty, imbued with honesty and integrity, a Code of Conduct, which sets out a summary of our ethical and professional standards, is being presented to you. I call upon all members of the staff to read this code as well as the values booklet with due care and attention. I expect them to comply fully with its provisions.

Our Purpose

TOGETHER BUILDING
A BETTER TOMORROW THROUGH A VALUE-DRIVEN CULTURE

Together

- We are always stronger as a team than we are as individuals. Through teamwork, our companies grow stronger and become more effective. And each sturdier, better functioning company allows us to become even stronger as a Group.

Building a better tomorrow

- We exist to make a difference. We strive to make everyone's life better.
- We constantly aim to provide better products and services, because we are aware that our customers buy our products and services out of choice.
- We take a long-term approach to our work. We seek to create a better tomorrow.
- We are genuinely attentive to sustainability.

Through a value-driven culture

- Our ideals and ethics define how we operate.
- Our morals and beliefs inform how we make decisions and move forward.
- Our values are the foundation upon which each of our companies is built.
- Our culture is a reflection of how we work as a Group.

Our 5 Values

PURPOSE

WHY WE EXIST

TOGETHER BUILDING A BETTER TOMORROW THROUGH A VALUE-DRIVEN CULTURE

MISSION

HOW WE ACHIEVE OUR PURPOSE

Through our continuous commitment to people, progress and strong values, we will continue to lead the way. We are a proudly Mauritian organization with a rich heritage of entrepreneurship and foresight - ever learning from our past to build something better for today and for the generations to come.

OUR VALUES

HOW WE BEHAVE IN ACHIEVING OUR PURPOSE & MISSION

FORESIGHT

By making a continuous effort to understand the needs and expectations of our customers and other stakeholders, and by looking ahead, we are able to visualise a better future and achieve it through analysis, agility and timely decisions / actions.

INTEGRITY

With fairness and respect, we build honest, long-term relationships with all our stakeholders.

RESPONSIBILITY

It is our intimate conviction that success is not solely defined in financial terms but as importantly in the positive impact we have on current and future generations of stakeholders and on the environment.

PASSION

We breathe life into our vision by being passionate in everything we do. We believe that passion motivates our teams, inspires progress, excellence and success, while building a better tomorrow for our team-members, customers, suppliers, partners, company, and country. We can be passionate while remaining gracious and humble.

OPENNESS

We become stronger by being open and inclusive, by being actively curious and willing to learn from others and always demonstrating respect for different cultures, beliefs and ideas. Diversity for us is a source of strength.

Behaviour Standards

This Code reflects our long standing and fundamental belief in responsible and ethical business practice. We must make these principles an integral part of our business conduct.

PERSONAL CONDUCT

- 1 We must observe the laws of Mauritius in everything we do.
- 2 We, as the employees of the company, must not ask for any gift or favour from anyone if that gift or favour has or is perceived to have an influence on the way we do our job.
- 3 We must not accept any gift or favour from anyone in connection with the way we do our jobs. Sometimes a token of appreciation for a job well done cannot be refused without appearing impolite. In that case we must disclose all gifts and favours received in connection with the way we do our jobs in writing to the GM/GM-HR through the Annual Disclosure Forms.
- 4 We must never offer any bribe or gift or favour to anyone in order to influence that person in the way he does his job.
- 5 While moderate business entertaining is acceptable, we must guard against hospitality that appears to be aimed at influencing us in the way we do our job. Whenever possible, hospitality should be reciprocated. In any case, all business entertainment should comply with the provisions of the Corporate Entertainment Policy.
- 6 We generate, receive and store information that is valuable to outsiders. We must not disclose such information without permission. We each have a responsibility to ensure that such information under our control or to which we have access is properly safeguarded to ensure the highest level of confidentiality as specified in the Information Security Policy.
- 7 The company's property (including intellectual property) and products belong only to the company. They do not belong to us. If any of us takes company property or products for our own use or to give or sell, he commits theft and is liable to dismissal and prosecution. The company's services and facilities are not to be used for private purposes except with prior written permission. This obligation remains in effect beyond termination of employment within the organisation.

- 8 We must manage personal finances, including investments, in a manner consistent with our employment, prudently and above board. The Company expects that we do not tarnish our own or the Company's image by any undesirable financial action on our part.
- 9 We must fully comply with the letter and spirit of all existing policies and procedures.
- 10 We must each always be aware that our conduct when we are off duty can reflect on the company's reputation. Our social life is usually not entirely separate from our working life.
- 11 We must not allow our personal interests to conflict with our official duties in the company. If any of us has a personal interest that may influence, or appear to influence, the way we do our job, we must declare that interest in writing and take appropriate steps to resolve the conflict of interest. We must each make sure that our dealings with customers, suppliers, contractors and colleagues do not place us in a position of obligation that may lead to a conflict of interest.
- 12 Employees should seek advice and written permission from the GM/GM-HR before undertaking a secondary employment even if it is on a part-time basis. Any interests in private business of any nature or any other involvement (including those currently held) should be declared in writing to the GM/GM-HR. It is understood that such activities should not involve any conflict of interest or use of company time/resources or be incompatible with professional ethics. All such secondary occupation should be disclosed every year in the Annual Disclosure Forms.
- 13 An outside employment or economic activity, paid or unpaid, regular or casual, must not be undertaken without prior written permission from the GM/GM-HR.
- 14 The Company employs persons of varied backgrounds, without regard to colour, gender, national origin, race, religion or status. All employees must conduct their relationships with other employees with courtesy, decency, fairness, honesty and mutual respect.

RESPONSIBILITIES TO CUSTOMERS AND CONSUMERS

- 15 We are required to demonstrate courtesy, respect, honesty, fairness, and decency in our relationships with customers, competitors and the general public and to make decisions and allocate resources objectively without regard to friendship or personal taste.
- 16 We aim to provide efficient and courteous service with a view to ensuring the highest level of customer satisfaction.
- 17 We aim to keep our customers truthfully informed about the company's capabilities without misrepresentation, exaggeration or overstatement.
- 18 We aim to provide our customers with products that meet high standards of safety, quality and reliability. We take full responsibility for products that fail to meet these required standards.

RELATIONS WITH COMPETITORS, SUPPLIERS AND CONTRACTORS

- 19 We believe in fair and open competition. We treat our competitors honourably and we aim to develop and maintain long-term relationships with suppliers and contractors based on mutual trust.
- 20 Our procurement of supplies and services is done to the highest ethical standards that assure a quality end product and the continued confidence of customers, suppliers and the public. We must ensure that the hire of services and the purchase of goods are based solely on price, quality, service and need. We must also ensure that our suppliers and contractors are paid on time and according to agreed terms of trade.
- 21 Relations with customers and suppliers shall always comply with contractual undertakings and prevailing legislation.

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

- 22 It is the policy of the company to maintain complete and accurate records and accounts and to present them in accordance with all applicable laws and professional accounting standards. We do not tolerate any false, artificial or misleading statement or entry in any of the company's books, accounts, records, documents or financial statements.
- 23 None of us must ever make use of insider information, namely information that has not been made public, for our personal advantage.

EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

- 24 Over the years the company has employed relatives of employees and this has been mutually beneficial. However, employment of managers' relatives within the business units where these managers are employed is subject to prior written approval of the cluster MD. Furthermore, in order to maintain professional standards close relatives should not work in the same department and/or have any reporting relationship. All staff are required to disclose all family links with fellow employees every year in the Annual Disclosure Forms.
- 25 Employees are kept informed of company matters affecting them, including the company's goals, directions and performance. Channels of communication that foster an atmosphere of mutual trust and respect between the company and its employees are always open.
- 26 The Company upholds an open-door policy. Employees are encouraged to contact their superior and/or manager if they have any suggestions or complaints to make or if they require relevant information to help them plan/perform more efficiently both individually and within a team. While the Company emphasizes individual performance, it recognizes the need for teamwork at all levels to ensure maximum organizational effectiveness.

27 The occupational health, safety and welfare of its employees are a prime concern of the company. It is the responsibility of us all employees to comply with all occupational health and safety laws and to provide good and safe working conditions.

28 The company aims to achieve equality of opportunity and treatment for all its employees in recruitment, training, promotion, transfer, benefits and discipline. All employees are treated as individuals according to their ability to meet job requirements.

29 The dignity and individuality of every employee will be respected. The privacy and confidentiality of employee records will be safeguarded.

30 An employee who believes he or she is being required to act in a way that is inconsistent with the standards in this code or who believes others are breaching the code should report the matter directly to the GM/GM-HR. The company undertakes to ensure that no prejudice whatsoever results to an employee who makes such a report on reasonable grounds or in good faith as specified in the Whistle Blower Policy.

RESPONSIBILITIES TO THE COMMUNITY

31 Care for the environment is one of the company's main concerns. We are committed to sustainable development in that we aim to manufacture, handle and dispose of all materials in compliance with the law and in a responsible manner without creating risk to human health or the environment.

32 Participation by directors and employees in community activities and civic affairs is encouraged.

33 The company supports charitable organisations and encourages directors and employees to do likewise.

34 The company endorses the democratic principles of Mauritius. Contribution, if any, to political organisations or electoral candidates is specifically recorded in the company's books and is made in accordance with all applicable laws.

35 In addition, the Company does not in any way discourage its employees from exercising individual political or other civil rights. Employees should, however, obtain the prior written approval of the MD of the company before taking up any executive position in any political party or standing as a candidate in any election.

36 Employees should obtain the formal approval of their Company MD or the CJ Corporate MD, as the case may be, prior to giving interviews and/or issuing any communication to the media, including social media, pertaining to the affairs of the Group.

COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT

37 It is the personal responsibility of every employee to understand and comply with this Code of Conduct. In addition, Managers are responsible for ensuring that those they supervise, understand and comply with the code. Problems encountered in complying with the code and suggestions for improving it should be made to the GM-HR.

38 Any breach of the code will be promptly dealt with and sanctioned.

39 Channels of complaint are open to shareholders and potential shareholders, customers and consumers, suppliers, contractors, directors and employees of the company. All complaints will be considered impartially and efficiently.
